W. L. CASTLE IS TO BE AUTHOR

Promises Guide-Book for the Islands—Week's News of Big Island.

HILLO, Hawaii, July 1.—W. L. Castle gave Hilo a sample of the strenuous life last week. He arrived in the Mauna Kea Wednesday forenoon, and spent the rest of that day renewing acquaintances in town. On Thursday morning he made a flying trip through Puna. On Friday he gave a dance, and on Saturday morning he departed for the Volcano, it being his intention to continue on into Kau, through Kona, and to catch the Mauna Loa at Kailua.

Castle stated that he will leave shortly for the East, and that he will not return to the Islands for five years or so. It is his intention to write a book on the Hawaiian Islands, and in order to gather material he has been spending several months traveling about on the various islands. He first went over to Kauai; then he made a very thorough trip all over Maui, and he came here to get the facts he needed about Hawaii. He intends to make his book a complete guide for tourists, giving maps of the islands, and descriptions of them, stating all that is to be seen and mentioning all the points of interest. Castle stated that he intended to give Hilo an especially prominent place in this work, which he expects will be published during the latter part of the present year.

The dance given by Castle took place at Spreckels' hall, and was a most enjoyable affair. It was informal in character, excellent refreshments were served, and those who attended, the majority of them young people, had a splendid time. Castle acted as his own floor manager, and made good. At the opening of the affair he made the following short address to those present:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: It gives me great pleasure to welcome you here this evening at this dance given in my name by my cousin, Miss Harriet Hitchcock, who, I am sorry to say, is unable to be present. I regret not knowing more of you better than I do; but we have never had an opportunity of becoming better acquainted, as all my visits to your city have been very short.

"You people are to be congratulated as to your city of Hilo, not only with its great tourist and varied industry possibilities, but with the probability of its becoming a great commercial center; and I can not help but wonder how many changes will occur by the time I visit Hilo again, which can not be in less than five years. If you are surprised now, you will be more surprised when I come again."

Fears Drove Him Insane.

Piliwale, the Hawaiian who was charged some time ago with arson, was last week committed to the Insane Asylum by Judge Andrews on the recommendation of Dr. Hayes, the case being a particularly sad one. Piliwale was arrested because he burned a hut, built by a woman, named Piliwale, on land which both Piliwale and Piliwale claimed. The case was subsequently not pressed, but later on a suit for a thousand dollars damages was filed against him.

Those who are acquainted with the affair claim that Piliwale was driven insane by fear, the arrest having greatly frightened him. He constantly had the illusion that the police were hounding him, and the formerly hard-working and industrious man lost all interest in life and took no interest in his affairs. When his children did any work, he would stop them, saying that it was no use to do anything as the police would soon come and take everything. His actions finally became so abnormal that it was deemed best to have him placed in safekeeping, and the commitment followed.

Unfaithful Tommy.

Among the recent visitors in Hilo were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunn. In a local paper, Mr. Dunn says that they intend to return to Hilo being well pleased with their visit, the town, the climate and the people they met here.
He was particularly enthusiastic over "The Private Secretary" which he declared to be far superior to any amateur performance presented in Honolulu.

County Jailers.

Sheriff Pua has issued commissions to the following jailers and guards in the County of Hawaii, and they all began their duties this morning: John H.
Maby, jailer; David Kaubi, Anton Silva, John Kumukui and Frank Gomes, guards, South Hilo; W. Kalina Kahalehu, jailer, N. Hilo; Daniel Dart, jailer, Hamakua; S. W. Kekuewa, jailer, N. Kohala; J. K. Lelepal, jailer, S.
Kohala; John Lincoln, jailer, N. Kona; John S. Kauwe, jailer, S. Kona; Geo.
K. Kawaha, jailer, Kau; L. K. Kalake, jailer, Puna.

Big Island Locals.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kennedy are at present staying at Bide-a-Wee, their mountain residence.

Another meeting of the delegates of the Japanese labor union of this island will be held next week.

Governor Frear has reappointed H.
H. Renton as a member of the Board of Prison Inspectors for West Hawaii.
Jailer Maby received his commission from Sheriff Pua some time ago and assumed his duties, under the County, this morning.

Mrs. Jarrett T. Lewis left here by the Enterprise on a hurried trip to New York, having received bad reports of the condition of her mother's health.

Tristan Osorio, a Hilo boy, has just graduated from the Central Normal College at Danville, Ind., taking the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He at once enters the Indiana University where he will make the law his subject of special study.

HOTEL FAIRMONT, SAN FRANCISCO.

Three years ago, when the fire was raging at its worst, the sight of the classic outlines of the Fairmont Hotel, standing out white against the black clouds of smoke, lent hope to the anxious thousands. When the flames swirled fiercely about it, to many it seemed that the last hope was gone. At that time the Fairmont Hotel was just about to open.
Three years of time, and more than three millions of dollars had been spent in the construction of the building and the furnishings and furnishings of its interior. How well the building was constructed is evidenced by the fact that it came out of the stress and trial of both fire and its accompaniments without a single injury other than the complete destruction of everything inflammable to be found inside of its walls.

After the reaction of the first month had passed, work was immediately commenced to rebuild and refurnish the entire building, at a cost of over two million dollars, the work of reconstruction went on. Over a million dollars was spent in interior furnishings and furniture, and the magnificent appointments of the house as it stands today speak well for the care and taste used in the selection. The formal opening of the hotel to the public took place on the 18th of April, 1907, just one year after the catastrophe, at which time the Chamber of Commerce gave a banquet in celebration of the event. On the 21st of April, 1907, the doors were thrown open to the public with a splendid reception, to which nearly all San Francisco came.

The hotel was not fully complete at that time. Some of the rooms on the upper floors were not ready, but when the Palace Hotel Company, which formerly operated the old Palace Hotel on Market street, took hold, determined to push things through, the work went on with amazing rapidity. Today, more than any other building in San Francisco, the Fairmont stands a monument to the energy and determination of her citizens.

A Wonderful Hotel.

In it San Franciscans have a hotel of which they can justly be proud, as in the matter of location, it stands absolutely unsurpassed in the world. In the matter of appointments, service, and exclusive features which make hotel life pleasant, it is without peer. The Fairmont Hotel today has capacity for taking care of one thousand guests.

Its entertainment features are so numerous and so varied that as has happened many times, as many as six different gatherings, including banquets, balls and public meetings, can be held under its roof at the same time, and under such favorable conditions that any assembly scarcely realizes there is any other in the house.

Marvelous Outlook.

The view from the Fairmont is such as to make the most blasé and experienced globe-trotter stand in wonder and amazement. From its windows (for every room in this magnificent hostelry is an outside room) can be seen the superb panorama of the Golden Gate, the Bay of San Francisco, crowded with ships from all parts of the world, the mountains and hills of Contra Costa County on the other side of the bay, with Mt. Diablo 30 miles to the southeast, and Mt. St. Helena over a hundred miles to the northeast breaking the sky-line. In the immediate foreground of the hotel lies the busy city, in which new steel sky-scrapers are rising in place of the old style business houses which were destroyed.

In the Center of the City.

Chinatown, almost entirely rebuilt in a new and better way, is but a few minutes' walk from the door of the hotel. By means of the various street car lines which pass its doors all parts of the city, the ferries and railroad stations, the banks and exchanges, retail business and theater centers, as well as the residence portions of the city can be easily reached.

Unique Among the World's Hotels.

The Fairmont Hotel differs from almost any similar institution in the number of unique features which it offers for the entertainment of its guests.
Because of these, it is easily the social center of San Francisco; you might say, of the State. Just as the old Palace Hotel, which is now being rebuilt on a new and greater scale at the old site on Market street, was one of the most famous hosteleries of the world, and entertained guests of all nations, so the Fairmont, under the same management which so adequately took care of the affairs of the Palace, is most cosmopolitan, and in its halls will be found the experienced travelers from every country of the world.

Unequaled Entertainment Features.

The ball room of the Fairmont Hotel is one of the most beautiful, as well as one of the largest, in existence. It has one of the few spring floors to be found in the country, making dancing peculiarly delightful. It is decorated in white and gold, with hangings of blue satin tapestry. Its walls are covered with mirrors, between which are decorations by the most famous mural artists of the world. And the ball room is not merely an ornament. San Franciscans are a very sociable people, and the records of the ball-room show that it is occupied an average of three times a week during the social season. Behind it is the famous red banquet room, which has, perhaps, held more distinguished company than any other room of its kind west of Chicago. On the floor below is the magnificent Norman Cafe banquet room, a hall of superb proportions and simple grandeur. It is the best illustration of a hall of the Norman period. Even the tessellated floor is made of special design, a characteristic of the Norman times. From the lofty ceiling hang chandeliers of quaint design, made of hand-wrought iron in Paris especially for this room.
The long French windows, which cover the entire north side of the Norman Cafe, open on the terrace, a broad, flagged promenade, which overlooks the Bay of San Francisco and the city.
Upon special occasions of large entertainment, the terrace is canvassed in, making another hall, almost as large as the Norman Cafe itself. On warm days the terrace presents an animated scene, rambling one largely of Paris or the embankment in London. Here parties of convivial spirits gather around the tables where lunch is served in the open air, overlooking the most beautiful panorama of mountain and sea.

Numerous Dining Places.

Another thing for which the Fairmont Hotel is noted is the number and variety of its different dining places.
In them one may find a place to dine as suits his convenience. The Laurel Court, which is immediately behind the lobby, offers a convenient grill for ladies and gentlemen. Further on is the main dining salon, with accommodations for three hundred people. This room is done in white and gold with silk tapestries. From its windows, as one dines, he may look out over the bay and the shipping. Then there is the beautiful grey breakfast room, which is particularly well adapted for private dinners, luncheons and banquets. In other parts of the same floor are found the special tea and card rooms set aside for the use of guests who wish to entertain in a less formal way. Then there are private dining rooms, where organizations may meet around a friendly board. On floor A is found the crypt, one of the most unique cafes in existence. It is in the corner of Mason and Sacramento and is extremely popular with the business men of San Francisco. It offers a comfortable grill and bar for men, where special attention is paid to the cooking of steaks and chops and old country dishes. The service here is swift and efficient, and it is immensely popular as a luncheon place for business men.

Epitome of Hotel Excellence.

The Fairmont, as it stands today, is the epitome of hotel excellence. The vast experience which the Palace Hotel Company had in the celebrated Palace Hotel has been utilized in this house.
To Colonel John C. Kirkpatrick, General Manager of the Palace Hotel Company, was given the task of instilling into a brand new house the spirit of hospitality which made the old Palace Hotel celebrated in two hemispheres. How well he has succeeded in doing this is evident the moment one enters the doors of the Fairmont. For the Palace Hotel spirit of hospitality enfolds one like a garment, making his visit one of delight, his leave-taking one of regret, and his memory of the time so spent one of great pleasure.

Only hotel in the world in which every room has a bath.

The Fairmont Hotel offers to the traveler all the conveniences and luxuries known to the best modern hotel, together with many exclusive features, some of which we have spoken of above.
Every room in the entire hotel has a bath attached. For $2.50 one may thus enjoy a pleasant room, beautifully furnished in mahogany, with a dainty white-tiled bath; or, for as low as ten dollars, a suite of rooms. Visitors to San Francisco may rest assured that at the Fairmont Hotel they will find only the best of accommodations and service.

Bank of Hilo management has been thinking about it.

Friends of William Vannatta are hoping for his reappointment, as Superintendent of Water Works, at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors next week. He has been endorsed by the County committee and also by business men who want to see Hilo's water system kept in good hands.

Jack Dowsett, Mrs. Dowsett and family arrived here yesterday and went to the Volcano House for a visit. Mr.
Dowsett will be in town again on Monday for the races, then going to Puna on business. The party will probably return via Kau and Kona. This is Mrs. Dowsett's first visit to Hilo.

Treasurer Lalakea has received applications from fourteen persons for the position of license clerk. He will probably apply to the Board of Supervisors for permission to make such an appointment. A number of licenses have been prepared ready for issuance today, considerably more than $600 having already been deposited with the Treasurer.

Rev. Curtis E. Shields and Mrs.
Shields will leave Hilo on Friday, July 9, for Honolulu on their way home to Ohio. Rev. A. Dahms, who succeeds Mr. Shields, is not expected here before August, arriving in Honolulu by the Hiloian on August 1. In the meantime the First Foreign Church will be closed to receive a thorough renovating and overhauling.
